

Golden Hills Optometry is pleased to announce the addition of

to our practice.

Bio

Dr. George Contos grew up in the New England area of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. He attended UC Berkeley as an undergraduate, majoring in Physiology, Greek, Sanskrit and Latin. He completed his Doctor of Optometry degree at the School of Optometry at UC Berkeley.

Dr. Contos has been practicing in the San Francisco Bay Area for many years and as a comprehensive Doctor of Optometry, he is very knowledgeable with all types of contact lenses and is glaucoma certified. He has studied Spanish formally in schools, and also while traveling extensively in Mexico and Central America on several trips. He has also taken introductory courses in Mandarin Chinese, which gives him the ability to pronounce eye and vision care terms authentically to his patients.

Dr. Contos enjoys reading books about science, culture, anthropology, health, medicine and history. His greatest joy is the company of friends and family, celebrating life.
